

Welcome

34rd EUGridPMA meeting Copenhagen

11/5-13/5 2015

Venue

- Niels Bohr Institute
- The physics institute of the University of Copenhagen
- Same location as the 13th EUGridPMA meeting
 - May 2008

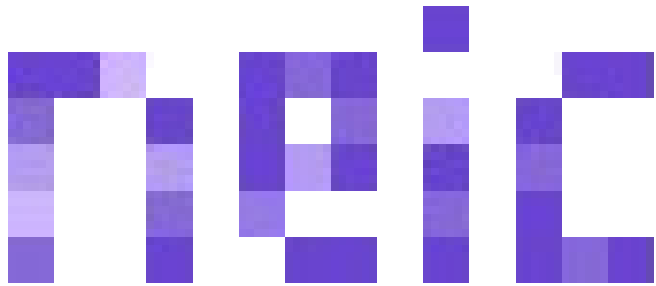

NBI in numbers

- 10 research groups
- 12 science centres
- 145 full-time and project-based academic staff
- 95 technical staff
- 85 PhD-students
- ~130 foreign researchers a year
- 710 Physics students

Niels Bohr Institute

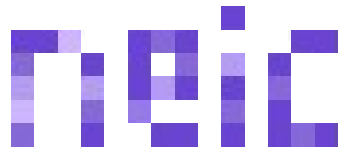

- Founded in 1921 by danish physicist Niels Bohr
- The Institute for Theoretical Physics of the University of Copenhagen
- Niels Bohr Institute named Historic Site
 - The European Physical Society
- The physics institute is moving to a new building:
 - “The Niels Bohr Building”
 - Ready around 2016/2017

Sponsor

Nordic e-Infrastructure
Collaboration

NeIC kindly sponsors lunch and coffee/tea

About NeIC

The Nordic e-Infrastructure Collaboration (NeIC) is an organisation that facilitates the development and operation of high-quality e-Infrastructure solutions in areas of joint Nordic interest. The NeIC is a distributed organisation consisting of technical experts from academic high-performance computing centres across the Nordic countries.

<http://neic.nordforsk.org/>

Predecessor: Nordic DataGrid Facility (NDGF)

Meeting Logistics/Breaks

- Meeting will be in Aud. C for all 3 days
- Doors open at 8:30
- Coffee/tea breaks are held at the “small” lunchroom
- Lunches are in the canteen
- You will get lunch tickets